

New Villagers Club of Tellico Village
February Newsletter

 President's Message

As New Villagers, each one of us eventually finds time after unpacking boxes and moving furniture to explore the nooks and crannies of this place we consider Paradise -- the foothills of the Smoky Mountains of east Tennessee. We all have our individual reasons why we moved here, but invariably the desire to live in a beautiful region filled with recreational opportunities so numerous that it boggles the mind rises to the top of the list.

As I write this message to each of you, I have just arrived home after a spectacular Sunday brunch with 2 dozen New Villagers at the hidden gem known as the Whitestone Country Inn. I've lived in Tellico Village for a little bit more than a year and a half, and I had never heard of this gorgeous place located on a back road off Rt. 72 in Kingston until NV event coordinator Jackie Vacchio (who arrived in TN just 5 months ago) took it upon herself to arrange a group event.

As I was enjoying brunch, I met Mike and Susan Price, who moved here from Illinois just 3 weeks ago. The Prices then proceeded to ask me if I had ever been to "Daddy Mac's Down Home Dive" in Farragut. They said a spectacular family bluegrass band would be playing on Tuesday night, and their suggestions were perfect! I hadn't heard of Daddy Mac's, but it is the kind of casual fun I love, and even better, the video they showed me of the Sowell Family bluegrass band was superb, reminding me of the great Allison Krauss and her legendary band.

My day of surprises wasn't over -- I chatted with Patti Morris, one of the volunteers who leads the Muddy Boots hiking group. She and Jan Jacobson and Maureen Hrynyszak are carrying on the volunteer tradition of leading New Villagers in hikes in and around the beautiful mountains and lakes of our new Tennessee homes. It made me smile to know that my new-found friends, each very new residents, had found some hidden gems they wanted their fellow New Villagers to know about.

I ended this day feeling especially gladdened that I had chosen this place to call Home. Gary What's your hidden gem?!
